

CAFNR International Program Cancellation Policy

I understand, and will comply with the following terms of withdrawal:

Withdrawal before departure:

- A. If you withdraw after the application deadline and any time up to one month before departure, there will be a cancellation charge of $150 which covers program administration costs. In addition, you will be responsible for any costs that have been paid out that are unrecoverable by CAFNR International Studies. This may include transportation costs, housing costs as well as any other incurred expenditures.

- B. If you withdraw less than four weeks before departure, we will assess penalties associated with transportation (airline/train/coach) and housing bookings, instructional costs, and any other incurred expenditures. This could accumulate to as much as 90% of total program fees.

Withdrawal after departure: In those rare cases where you feel you must return from overseas, check with your leader and the Program Director of International Studies for procedures. No refund is available.
